

STAINS

Complexity Level: 2-3 – These old photo postcards seemed to be very popular in their day, so they pop up often. The paper surface seemed to hold up very well, but the images still suffered some surface damage such as stains.

1. Original antique postcard, c. 1910. The lower right corner is missing. A massive water spot has damaged the face and blouse of the seated woman. Also, the photo shows dirt spots and scratching. ▼

2. Water marks have been removed and the neck bow and blouse have been restored. Complexity level 2. ▼
